Detailed itinerary

Day 1(24-11-2025): Arrive at City of Pyramids - Cairo (D)

Upon our arrival in Cairo, we'll breeze through immigration formalities and collect our luggage. Following that, we'll be swiftly transported to our hotel for check-in.

After a well-deserved rest and a quick refresh, prepare for an enchanting evening that promises unforgettable memories.

At around 7:00 PM, our adventure continues as we're chauffeured from our hotel to embark on a Nile Cruise. Here, we'll dine amidst the enchanting backdrop of the Nile while being mesmerized by the captivating Tanoura Show and alluring Belly Dancing. This is an evening that will etch itself into your memory.

Following the cruise, we'll return to our hotel for a comfortable overnight stay.

Day 2 (25-11-2025) : Day for Giza, Step Pyramids & Memphis Exploration (B+ L)

After indulging in a sumptuous breakfast, we kickstart our day with an adventure to remember.

Our first stop is the iconic Giza Plateau, home to the most impressive landmarks in Egypt. Here, we'll stand in awe of the three Pyramids of Kings Cheops, Chephren, and Mykerinus. These ancient marvels are guarded by the enigmatic rock-cut statue, the Great Sphinx, a majestic creature with the head of a Pharaoh and the body of a lion. It dates back to the time of Chephren and is a sight to behold.

The Great Pyramid of King Cheops, the sole survivor of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, stands tall, even though it's 2,000 years older than its peers.

Next, we'll explore the fascinating Valley Temple, which is connected to the Pyramids of Chephren.

Our journey through time continues as we visit the Solar Boat Museum (entry fee applicable), home to a 5,000-year-old boat from the Ramases Dynasty.

We then move on to witness the Step Pyramid of King Zoser, the world's oldest major stone structure, dating back to the 3rd Dynasty (around 2630 BC). It's located in the Sqqara complex and is a true marvel of ancient engineering.

Our historical exploration leads us to "Memphis," founded by King Menes and once a capital of ancient Egypt until around 2,200 BC. It was a prominent cult center dedicated to God Ptah, the deity of creation and artworks. Prepare to be captivated by the temples and monuments devoted to him.

Finally, we retreat to our comfortable hotel for a well-deserved rest.

Day 3 (26-11-2025): Day Excursion to Alexandria (B+ L)

After a satisfying breakfast, it's time for an exciting land trip! We'll embark on a 3-hour journey to the enchanting city of Alexandria. Our adventure in Alexandria begins with visits to some of its most renowned landmarks:

Pompey's Pillar: First on our list is the impressive Pompey's Pillar, a testament to the city's rich history. Catacomb of Kom El-Shoqafa: We'll delve into the depths of history as we explore the Catacomb of Kom El-Shoqafa, a fascinating archaeological site. Library of Alexandria: Prepare to be amazed by the grandeur of the Library of Alexandria, currently the largest library in the world, housing a staggering 8 million books. Site of the Lighthouse: Next, we'll visit the site of the ancient Lighthouse of Alexandria, one of the seven wonders of the ancient world. Here, we now find the impressive Castle of Qaitbey. Corniche Drive: We'll take a scenic drive along the Corniche, offering panoramic views of Alexandria from the seaside. Keep an eye out for the remnants of the old harbor, where 7,000 monuments lie submerged beneath the waters. Stanley Bridge: We'll make a stop at the famous Stanley Bridge, a modern landmark in Alexandria that's sure to catch your eye. Abo El Abbas Mosque: Our journey continues to the magnificent Abo El Abbas Mosque, the city's prettiest and largest mosque. Unknown Soldier of Alexandria and Statue of Alexander the Great: We'll pay our respects at the Unknown Soldier of Alexandria monument and admire the statue of the legendary Alexander the Great.

After an enriching day exploring Alexandria, we'll return to our hotel in Cairo for a comfortable overnight stay, filled with memories of this remarkable city.

Day 4 (27-11-2025): Exploring Cairo's Ancient Treasures (B+ L)

Following a satisfying breakfast, our journey through the annals of history continues, promising a day filled with awe-inspiring discoveries.

Our first stop is the renowned Egyptian Museum of Antiquities, a true time capsule built-in 1902. Here, we embark on a voyage through time, exploring artifacts from the Pharaonic period. The museum is a treasure trove, showcasing a rare collection of 5,000 years of art, considered the largest and most precious collection of Egyptian art globally. With over 250,000 artifacts on display, prepare to be overwhelmed by the richness of Egypt's history.

We then proceed to visit two magnificent landmarks:

- Mohamed Ali Alabaster Mosque: A splendid mosque with a commanding presence in Cairo, its alabaster beauty will leave you in awe.
- Citadel of Salah El Din: This ancient fortress, built to protect the city against invaders, offers breathtaking views of Cairo and its rich history.

Our journey through Cairo takes us to Old Cairo, where history and faith intertwine:

- The Hanging Church: A testament to Egypt's Coptic Christian heritage, its architecture and spiritual significance are truly remarkable.
- Abu Sirga Church: Another sacred site, this church adds to the spiritual tapestry of Old Cairo.
- Synagogue: Our exploration takes us to a place of historical and religious importance.

We'll then visit Khan EL Khalili and El Hussein Area, immersing ourselves in the vibrant atmosphere of these bustling markets, where centuries of tradition meet modern commerce.

As the day turns into night, we'll attend the captivating Sound and Light Show, a mesmerizing experience that brings Egypt's history to life against the backdrop of the illuminated pyramids.

After a day filled with exploration and cultural immersion, we'll return to our hotel in Cairo for a well-deserved rest.

 - Barcelo Pyramids 4*/Similar

Day 5 (28-11-2025): Aswan Sightseeing / Nubian Village / Nile Cruise (B+ L+D)

After an early morning check-out from our hotel, it's time to embark on the next leg of our journey. We'll be transferred to Cairo domestic airport for our flight to Aswan.

Our exploration of Aswan begins today:

- Aswan High Dam: Our first stop is the mighty Aswan High Dam, an engineering marvel that controls the flow of the Nile River and has played a pivotal role in Egypt's history.
- The Unfinished Obelisk: We'll marvel at the colossal Unfinished Obelisk, a testament to the incredible craftsmanship of ancient Egypt.
- Temple of Philae: Our next destination is the picturesque Temple of Philae, dedicated to the goddesses Isis and Hathor. Its construction began during the reign of Ptolemy II and was completed by the Roman emperors.

With our hearts filled with the beauty of Aswan, we'll then embark on a remarkable journey aboard a 5* Nile Cruise. Upon check-in, we'll refresh ourselves and savour a lavish lunch on the cruise.

Afterward, we'll enjoy a delightful tea session on the cruise deck before setting off on a memorable Felucca ride to a traditional Nubian Village. These villages nestle at the base of Elephantine Island, and this excursion offers a glimpse into the simple, tranquil, and natural life of the Nubian people. The Nubian culture is steeped in history, and their warm hospitality welcomes all visitors. We'll even have the chance to visit a local Nubian family's home during our tour. As the sun sets, we'll return to our comfortable cruise for a peaceful overnight stay, surrounded by the serene beauty of the Nile.

Day 6 (29-11-2025): Abu Simbel & Kom Ombo Adventure (B+ L+ D)

Rise and shine! Today, we're in for an early start, with our day kicking off at 4:00 AM as we embark on a remarkable historical journey. We'll hop on an air-conditioned coach for a scenic 3.5-hour drive to the awe-inspiring Abu Simbel. If you need a little more rest, feel free to catch a few more winks on the way – we want you to be fully energized for this remarkable experience.

Our first stop takes us to the colossal Temple of Abu Simbel, a testament to the grandeur of Ramses II from the XIXth Dynasty. These temples were meticulously carved out of a sandstone rock cliff and feature intricate representations of the deities they were dedicated to, carved into their huge façade. Nearby, we'll also discover the small but equally captivating Temple of the King's wife, Nefertari, devoted to the goddess Hathor.

After our awe-inspiring visit to Abu Simbel, we'll make our way back to Aswan.

In the afternoon, we'll return to our cruise, where you can enjoy a leisurely lunch as we set sail towards Kom Ombo.

Arriving in the area, we'll explore the unique Kom Ombo Temple, a fascinating double temple dedicated to the Falcon God "Haroeris" in the southern part and the crocodile God "Sobek" in the northern part. This architectural wonder dates back to the Ptolemaic era and holds many mysteries. Of particular interest is the scene on the inner face of the rear wall, thought to depict a set of surgical instruments.

As the day winds down, we'll head back to our cruise, continuing our journey, this time towards Edfu. Here, we'll enjoy a delectable dinner on board and spend the night surrounded by the serene ambiance of the Nile.

Day 7 (30-11-2025): Edfu Exploration & Sailing to Luxor (B+ L+D)

Good morning! Today is set to be a day of awe-inspiring temple visits and serene sailing on the Nile.

In the morning, we'll set off to explore the Temple of Edfu, a true gem of Egypt and one of the most complete and well-preserved temples in the country. Flanked by magnificent granite statues of the falcon god Horus, this Ptolemaic temple is dedicated to the deity "Horus." The temple's walls, columns, and doorways are adorned with intricate reliefs that provide invaluable insights into ancient Egyptian religious and political beliefs.

After our enlightening visit to Edfu Temple, we'll return to our cruise for a delicious lunch as we continue our journey towards Luxor. En route to Luxor, be prepared to witness the mesmerizing operation of the ESNA water Lock, a breathtaking feat of engineering.

As we reach Luxor, we'll be picked up to explore two massive temples on the eastern bank of the Nile:

- Luxor Temple: Our first stop is Luxor Temple, believed to have hosted ancient Egyptian festivals. The temple's walls bear witness to scenes depicting these celebrations. Inside the temple, we'll find the Abu Al-Haggag Mosque, built on the ruins of an ancient church.
- Karnak Temple Complex: Our journey continues with a visit to the Karnak Temple Complex, an extraordinary site comprising a vast array of decayed temples, chapels, pylons, and other structures. Its history dates back to the Middle Kingdom, and it continued to evolve through the Ptolemaic Period. Karnak is a vast open-air museum and the second-largest ancient religious site globally.

After a day of exploration, we'll return to our cruise for a delightful dinner. Get ready for an evening of cultural immersion with a folkloric Tannoura and Belly Dance show. We'll spend the night on board in Luxor, surrounded by the enchanting allure of the Nile.

Day 8 (01-12-2025): Luxor's Treasures - Felucca Ride– Transfers to Hurghada (B+ L+ D)

Good morning! Get ready for a day filled with exploration, adventure, and a change of scenery.

For those early risers seeking an unforgettable experience, you have the option to enjoy a Hot Air Balloon ride at an additional cost of $145-150. Soar above the breathtaking landscapes of Luxor and witness the ancient wonders from a unique vantage point.

After a hearty breakfast, it's time to bid farewell to our cruise as we disembark. Our journey through the treasures of Luxor continues, this time on both the west and east banks of the Nile.

We'll start with the west bank, where we'll explore the incredible archaeological sites of ancient Egypt:

- Valley of the Kings: Our first stop takes us to the Valley of the Kings, a place where the well-preserved tombs of New Kingdom kings, including the legendary Ramses II and the child King Tutankhamun, can be found. This is a journey into the heart of royal history.
- Mortuary Temple of Queen Hatshepsut: Next, we'll visit the Mortuary Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, often referred to as "the Holy of Holies." This magnificent temple is a three-tiered structure connected by ramps, with its walls adorned with depictions of the divine birth of the Queen and her ambitious commercial expedition to the mysterious land of Punt.

After our explorations on the west bank, we will enjoy Felucca boat ride as our last tribute to Nile River. Now we'll head to Hurghada in a comfortable air-conditioned coach, with an approximate travel time of 3.5 hours. Upon arrival in Hurghada, we'll transfer to our hotel, check in, and get ready to unwind and relax. You'll have the evening to enjoy the beautiful surroundings and amenities of your Hurghada hotel.

 AMC Royal Hurghada 5* or Similar

Day 9 (02-12-2025): Leisure Hurghada or optional Giftun Island Excursion-(B+L+D)

Today is all about freedom and choice! You have the day to explore the beautiful beach city of Hurghada at your own pace and according to your interests. Whether you want to soak up the sun on the sandy shores, take a leisurely stroll along the beach, or indulge in some water sports, the day is yours to enjoy.

However, for those seeking a bit of adventure and natural beauty, we have an optional treat: a day visit to the serene Giftun Island at an additional cost of $65. This excursion includes lunch on a boat and the opportunity for some fantastic snorkeling at the paradisiacal beaches of Giftun Island.

The island is known for its crystal-clear waters, vibrant coral reefs, and a diverse array of marine life. It's a snorkeler's paradise, and you'll have the chance to explore the underwater world teeming with colorful fish and coral formations. Whether you choose to relax in Hurghada or embark on the Giftun Island adventure, your day promises to be filled with beauty and relaxation. In the evening, we'll return to our hotel in Hurghada for a comfortable overnight stay.
